Not Medical Advice

Content on this website is not intended to provide medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.

The information on this website should not be used as a substitute for professional medical advice from a qualified healthcare provider. Always seek the advice of a licensed physician, psychiatrist, or other qualified healthcare professional regarding any mental health condition or treatment.

Never disregard professional medical advice or delay seeking care because of information obtained from this website.

No Physician–Patient Relationship

Use of this website does not establish a physician–patient relationship with Revivify Psychiatry or any of its healthcare providers.

A physician–patient relationship is established only after appropriate intake documentation, consent forms, and clinical evaluation have been completed.

Telehealth Services

Revivify Psychiatry provides outpatient psychiatric care through telehealth services. Telehealth services require completion of appropriate intake documentation and telehealth consent forms before treatment can begin.

Telehealth services are available only to patients located in states where our providers are licensed.

Emergency Notice

This website is not intended for medical or mental health emergencies.

If you are experiencing a medical or psychiatric emergency:

- Call 911, or
- Go to the nearest emergency room.

If you are experiencing a mental health crisis in the United States, you may contact the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline by dialing 988.

Accuracy of Information

While we strive to keep information on this website accurate and current, Revivify Psychiatry makes no guarantees regarding the completeness or reliability of the information provided.

Medical knowledge evolves continuously, and information may change over time.
